

Welcome to Uppsala and Uppsala University

Founded in 1477, Uppsala University is Sweden's first university. It is a broad university with well-defined missions: to conduct research and education of the highest quality and to collaborate with the surrounding community in various ways to help make the world a better place. The University is ranked among the top 100 universities in the world.

The city of Uppsala

Uppsala is one of Sweden's oldest cities. It was known as Östra Aros up until the 13th century when the name Uppsala took over. Today, Uppsala is one of Sweden's four major cities and is world-renowned for its universities, its magnificent cathedral and the legacy of Carl Linnaeus, among other things. Attached you can find a map over the city of Uppsala.

Travels to and from the Airport

Bus / train

You can continue to Uppsala by airport buses, local busses, commuter trains or long-distance trains, which departures from SkyCity, Arlanda. A map of Arlanda airport. It will take a maximum of 1 hour to get to Uppsala from Arlanda, depending on your transportation of choice.

- Train tickets have to be bought before the trip starts, either over the counter or in a ticket machine.
- Buss tickets, on the other hand, can be bought before the trip or by credit card on board the bus.

Taxi

There are normally taxis waiting outside the terminals 4 and 5. Most taxi companies offer a fixed price to Uppsala, and have a sticker on the window stating the price. However, always confirm the price with the taxi driver before getting in the car.

Travels within Uppsala

Taxi

Call Uppsala Taxi, phone number: + 46 (0) 18 100 000.

Local busses

- The local bus company is ul.
- Bus number four goes from the central station to Ångström and leaves from bus stand B4. This is a map of the bus terminal.
- The bus stop at Ångström is called Polacksbacken and it takes about 10 minutes from the central station. The Ångström Lab is the red building on the same side as the bus stop where you get off.
- You can pay by Visa- or MasterCard on the busses. The bus drivers don't handle cash

Walking

If you have the time, go for a walk along the Uppsala Fyris stream that flows by Ångström and through the Uppsala city centre. The walk from Ångström to the city centre takes about 30 minutes.

Hotels in Uppsala

Category 5

- The atmosphere, composed around art, music, and design, is warm and welcoming at the first-class Clarion Hotel Gillet. The hotel offers an international look and feel and superb service and quality.
- Radisson Blu Hotel enjoys a prime location next to the Uppsala Travel Centre. The spacious suites feature private terraces and spectacular views of Uppsala.

Category 4

- Scandic Uplandia is a central hotel with newly renovated rooms and conference facilities. All rooms are equipped with modern amenities.
- Elite Hotel boasts the best possible location: right next to the central station and occupying the old post office building. This hotel is the perfect choice for those of you on business trips, attending conferences, or on holiday.

Category 3

- The Clarion Collection Hotel Uppsala has a lovely homely feel set in stunning historic surroundings.
- Best Western Hotel Svava is located in Uppsala's city centre, a stone's throw from the central station.

Location of the event:

The event will take place at "The Ångström Laboratory".

Address: Lägerhyddsvägen 1 in Uppsala

Please press here to see a map.